Hey man do you remember the day when you told me
'bout your new girl?
You would never let her leave you.

Hey man you had it all you had a girl a job and a brand new guitar
You were as happy as can be

'Cause you are, you're living my dream
I want to be you for just one day Yeah you are, you're living my dream but you're about to throw it all away.

Hey man it has been a tough year now and you're back where you started.
You made out with another girl
She said you broke her heart in two but of course you didn't listen
You're as cold as can be

Yeah you were, you were living my dream
You lost it all but your guitar
Yeah you were, you were living my dream
But you threw it all away

Yeah you were, you were living my dream
You lost it all but your guitar
Yeah you were, you were living my dream
But you threw it all away
