When I go out of town, I drive the whole night long Well, I woke this morn', I know you know right from wrong

Yeah, if I had possession over judgment day
Well, if I had possession over judgment day
Then the little woman I'm lovin' wouldn't have no right to pray

Well, I went to the mountain lookin' far as I could see Well, I went to the mountain lookin' far I could see Then some other got my woman and the lonesome blues got me

Then I rolled and I tumbled, I cried all night long Then I rolled and I tumbled and I, I cried all night long
When I woke up this mornin', my biscuit roller gone

Then I folded my arms and I slowly walked away
I didn't like the way she done
I folded my arms and I slowly walked away Then I said in my mind, "Your trouble's gonna come your way"

Now run here, baby, and sit down on my knee
Yeah, now run here, baby, sit down on my knee
I wanna tell you all about the way they mistreated me
