Colors, colors,
I'd never been that high think I wanna die in paradise.
Oh colors, colors
Where nothing really matters I just wanna stay in paradise.
Six in the morning and the colors fade away
And it's over now,
And it's over now,
Yes it's over,
Oh hit is
I saw you through the back door
now wonderful to see...

Colors, colors,
I'm talking with the Sun, I'm dancing with the Moon
that's really cool.
Mmm so many colors, colors,
Where nothing really matters I just wanna stay in
paradise

Six in the morning and the colors fade away
And it's over now,
And it's over now,
Yes it's over,
Oh yes it's...

I saw you through the back door
now wonderful to see

(solo)

I saw you through the back door
now wonderful to see...
