Oh!
Watch out with your anger!
You're hurting me with your stupid thoughts.
Your face is so beautiful
But when you talk like that I don't see it girl.
Let me see what's real so we both can dream.
Loving you, forever holding you
Through away your anger.
Love your soul, oh, love your soul.

To see the truth you gotta learn
To love and keep your innocence.
Your voice could be the sweetest one
But when you talk like that I don't listen girl.
Let me see what's real so we both can dream.
Loving you, forever holding you

Through away your anger.
Love your soul, oh, love your soul.

(solo)

To see the truth you need to learn
To love and keep your innocence.
Let me see what's real so we both can dream.

Loving you, forever holding you
Through away your anger.
Love your soul, oh, love your soul.
