"Keep Breathing"

Ain't got no choice in the matter
Somehow it happens all by itself
Even though by soul's been torn and tattered
And my heart stopped breathing on the day you left

I keep breathing
I keep breathing
Just when I think I'm gonna die
Out of nowhere I keep breathing

I don't know how this is possible
I'm defying all the odds
Though it's cold and invisible
This air you left around me's all I got

So I keep breathing
I keep breathing
Just when I think I'm gonna die
Out of nowhere I keep breathing

One more breath,
One more memory,
One more tear

Just when I think I'm gonna die
Out of nowhere I keep breathing
I keep breathing
