

Boy and Bear "House & Farm"

Visit "House & Farm" on MotoLyrics.com

I built my home in a day
Come and see if you may There's a rabbit in the garden that's keeping it all in place

I held the truth in my arms
It's a house and a farm
And a wife and my children to wait on with open Arms, arms

You're too old to be chasing your gold
Run with me to the sea
And we'll wait together patiently
Oh dear, it's too late
To be carrying on this way
When you're so close to God
You're so damn far away

And oh, it's too much
When the winter falls too cold to touch
Won't you hide in my harmony, harmony
Come to me, yea, yea yea...

Cause all that I wanted, all that I needed
All that I wanted, was to be
And all that I wanted, all that I needed
All that I wanted, was to be alone
Was to be alone
Was to be alone
