Oh, my love, this is the beginning
Open up your eyes so you don't miss it
We can stand on top of what we're building
Oh to see right where we are heading

But in the shadows we'll see nothing

I'm a strong believer
In you, my love, forever
I'll open up the windows and let the light in
We'll break out of the darkness, and out of our skin
We'll rest in what we don't know
And speak of what we hope

Oh, my love, why are you still running
Away from what you've always wanted?
We can make our home just like Eden
And spend our days living like we're children

Let's fight what love's already won

I'm a strong believer
In you, my love, forever
I'll open up the windows and let the light in
We'll break out of the darkness, and out of our skin
We'll rest in what we don't know
And speak of what we hope

Here's to holding nothing back
And to finally having what I've always lacked

I'm a strong believer
In you, my love, forever
I'll open up the windows and let the light in
We'll break out of the darkness, and out of our skin
We'll rest in what we don't know
And speak of what we hope

Oh, my love, this is the beginning
