VERSE 1

you shine brighter than diamonds in the dark you take me higher than the moon among the stars i wanna take you there. close your eyes nobody else, just you and i baby i swear it's impossible for it to feel this good even though you told me that it would every time baby
every time baby
every time baby

CHORUS:

tell me where you wanna take it next tonight i promise i'll hit your spot it's so easy baby like finding diamonds in the dark you told me me that you wanted something different babe so let me take control you're gonna feel me baby just promise you won't let go cuz we ain't finished baby this is just the start i knew you wouldn't expect it i won't neglect ya
like finding diamonds in the dark

VERSE 2:

now lemme slow it down ya one time bring the tempo down to help you unwind make no mistake, we gonna reach the top just hit the brakes, if you want me to stop but i gotta feeling that we won't slow down i'm already planning for another round
every time baby
every time baby
every time

CHORUS REPEAT

BRIDGE

it took so long to figure out that all you have to do is turn the lights off and let your beauty shine through it took so long to figure out

and find the diamonds in the dark
