The rain it cuts against my crossbow
Making love just ends in sorrow
But I'm not the sort of guy
Who could cry and say goodbye

The day it rained forever
The day it rained forever
Feeling like your fool

Laying down without your breathing
The trouble is beneath your feeling
But you're not the sort of girl
Who could cry and say goodbye
It's such a shame to hear you lie

The day it rained forever
The day it rained forever
The day it rained forever
The day it rained forever
Feeling like your fool

Watching rain that crashes my home
Not that feeling raising my hopes
But I'm not the sort of guy
Who could cry and say goodbye
I wasn't born to see this die

The day

But I can't hold out for long
For your foolish tongue I can't hang on

The day that it rained, that it rained
That it rained forever
The day it rained forever

The day that it rained, that it rained
That it rained forever, forever
But wait, but wait
It rained, it rained
