Tell you mother to have her vision examined
Tell your practitioner to practice famine
Children wearing suits hold briefcase family feuds
In juke box radio tunes
Coming to a store near you

We're gonna pull you in Never gonna let you out Make sure you know your way in a crowd When freedom only costs as much as you can amount They'll sell you whole life in pieces, wait till you die

So buy a life and sell a teen prophecy Glam horror mock silver-screen guillotine Put the whole family on trial tonight Turn the television off and turn on the lights With me...

We're gonna pull you in Never gonna let you out Make sure you know your way in a crowd When freedom only costs as much as you can amount They'll sell you whole life in pieces, wait till you die

We're gonna pull you in Never gonna let you out Make sure you know your way in a crowd When freedom only costs as much as you can amount They'll sell you whole life in pieces, wait till you die

Billboards advertise magazines
Record our memories rape our dreams
In Hollywood faces burnt like dollars bills
Why should I trade my drugs for your pills, Mr. Capital
Hill?
Sell me war, you're a king now
Get up in the spotlight...

Get up in the spotlight

We're gonna pull you in

Never gonna let you out Make sure you know your way in a crowd When freedom only costs as much as you can amount They'll sell you whole life in pieces, wait till you die

We're gonna pull you in Never gonna let you out Make sure you know your way in a crowd When freedom only costs as much as you can amount They'll sell you whole life in pieces, wait till you die

Get up get up were in the spotlight Get up get up were in the spotlight Spotlight spotlight crowd Spotlight spotlight crowd We're in the spotlight now.....
