Chorus (Passion) (2X)

I got this love (3X)

Because because because because

verse 1

because of Jonestown because of Auschwitz because the leaves fall, and we can't stop it but that makes fall leaves,

I'ma start a mosh pit

(ch!) this is your captain hopping out the the cockpit

I forgot my parachute but I got my bay sounds so I'll be going dummy rocking on the way down i'll be saying "hey ground!" howzabout we make out?

I'll put on some Ray Brown you can grab some take out love isn't more sin, love isn't forced in getting under your skin, digging for endorphins it's the portion some of us'll forgo fingers on your torso tapping you in morse code the opera aria we're singing like a bar song the stranger's pretty face that hits you like a car bomb the wrinkled note we passed in class in second grade and all it says up on the page (is)

Chorus

Because my Grandma lived to 99, eleven months between a hundred years of solitude and heaven once because she loved her son but couldn't ever say it right because the language of the planet isn't day and night it's in the in between it's when we intervene and never let a silly hater rabbit pimp the scene for the deaf kid in the aisle of the symphony who hears it through the rumble of the tuba and the timpani

For those lay waste to beauty with a straight face everywhere on earth we're all escaping from the same place and yes occasionally we get drunk and out of line and last night, there's a lamp post that I asked to be my valentine take a shady place, shine until it radiates seventeen to eighty eight, make a break and head west or make a promise to your lady in a red dress Last night in my hot mess That lamp post said yes Chorus

Detroit is equal till there's half its people laid off While corporate lawyers and former employers play golf
Because of furor over every juror paid off and because the f
