I know you're scared, about what's hiding 'round the corner
And I hate it, yes I do, when I see your tears
But I'm here, yes I'm here, put your head upon my shoulder
I'll be more, than you need, I can be your man of steel
And I've made mistakes and I've gone back on my word
But take my hand, I'll fly us right off this earth

Now we're gonna fly above the clouds tonight, shoot beyond the stars
I'm gonna wear this cape and show you what a superhero does
It don't matter if we're scared up here, with you I don't look down
You can be my angel and I'll, I'll be your superhero now
I'll be your superhero now

I know it's hard, and I can see we're at a crossroads
But there's more, so much more, that I wish I could explain
I can't wait, no I can't wait, for us to star in the next sequel
Where I'll play the part of Clark, and you'll be my Miss Lane
I know I'm not perfect but I'm trying to change
If I take off this disguise I might just save you today

Cause now we're gonna fly above the clouds tonight, shoot beyond the stars
I'm gonna wear this cape and show you what a superhero does
It don't matter if we're scared up here, with you I don't look down
You can be my angel and I'll, I'll be your superhero now
I'll be your superhero now

I'm gonna take off all this kryptonite so I can make you see
That underneath these glasses is a man I'm trying to be
I'd fly a million miles if it'd mean I'd get to see
A movie where I'd play the king, and you could be my queen

So let's go fly
So let's go fly

Cause now we're gonna fly above the clouds tonight, shoot beyond the stars
I'm gonna wear this cape and show you what a superhero does

It don't matter if we're scared up here, with you I don't look down
You can be my angel and I'll, be your superhero now
Be your superhero now
Be your superhero now
I'll be your superhero now
I'll be your superhero now
I'll be your superhero now
