I don't know what made us lose our way
We said some things we thought we'd never say
It never did come easy, I always fought for what felt right
You're the one I want here in my life, yeah

And you (you) are (are) love
And you (you) take me higher than above
And when you're not here my heart won't stay up
Cause all the while I'm thinking about us
You are love, love, love, love, love
You are love, love, love, love, love

We just need a place where we can hide
Try and find some reason in our lives yeah
You know it never did come easy, I keep on doing what feels right
You're the one I need here in my life, yeah

And you (you) are (are) love
And you (you) take me higher than above
And when you're not here my heart won't stay up
Cause all the while I'm thinking about us
You are love, love, love, love, love
You are love, love, love, love, love

Hold on, all the while I'm thinking about us

And you (you) are (are) love
And you (you) take me higher than above
And when you're not here my heart won't stay up
Cause all the while I'm thinking about us
You are love, love, love, love, love
You are love, love, love, love, love
And when you're not here my heart won't stay up
Cause all the while I'm thinking
Yeah all the while I'm thinking about us
