I was chillin' in the hallway, as I saw you walk by for the very first time
Tryna think of something to say
I know that you're new here, so can I be your tourguide

Then I see you in the lunch hall, It was then when we first spoke
You said you wanna get to know me better
Well that's what it said in the note

So now we're texting, tweeting, late night calling, hit
me up on facebook
Now we're at the mall and I still remember where we first met
Trust me I won't forget

Maybe you should stop and listen for a minute
This could be the moment to get lost in it
I can be your best friend
If you be my best friend
We just got that trust to make it last so it won't end

Maybe you should pause and put it on hold
This is so priceless it can't be sold
I can be your best friend
If you be my best friend
You don't have to worry bout a thing
Cause imma be your best friend

Are you busy on the weekend
I was thinking maybe we could go somewhere cool
If you want we can just chill Get your favourite pack of skittles and save me some too

Time flies when you're having fun
7pm but it feels like the day just begun
Gotta make most of every single day
Every single second, so tell me whatcha say

So now we're texting, tweeting, late night calling, hit

me up on facebook
Now we're at the mall and I still remember where we
first met
Trust me I won't forget

Maybe you should stop and listen for a minute
This could be the moment to get lost in it
I can be your best friend
If you be my best friend
We just got that trust to make it last so it won't end

Maybe you should pause and put it on hold
This is so priceless it can't be sold
I can be your best friend
If you be my best friend
You don't have to worry bout a thing
Cause imma be your best friend
