I had lost my way. Now I walk alone.
Entering this journey.
My soul was betrayed. Now it's on it's own
No choices but to stay.

I can now embrace. This new distant place.
On the same empty space.
once i landed here, right then you appear....
into my lonely life...

Forbidden songs that are sung from behind,
continue throughout my mind
Though my mind is saying things that feel so untrue,
my heart says i've grown close to you~

Within this world... I hold no fear...
yet my dreams call... something's wrong here...
Let's go find it... there we won't quit...
beyond the dark distant winds...

Freezing one point... through the distance....
yet it turns dry... in an instant...
freezing at night... no sense of light...
won't stop me to be with you....
