Girl, it's nothing at all
I'm moving away from many emotions while loneliness sleeps at my door

Craving again,
Fooling myself with this for so long,
can't get no sleep as well

You know this funny game of love
I know I gotta learn
Somehow this lucky wheel would turn...

Girl, where do we go
When you feel wrong for loving someone
You know there's just nothing to say...

Breaking away,
full of regrets and bitter-sweet words
It happens once again

You know this funny game of love
I know I gotta learn
Somehow this lucky wheel would turn...

Don't know why I keep on dreaming, grieving, thinking about you
Don't know how you keep on living like there's nothing to say
Should I keep with my dreams or turn...

You know this funny game of love
(ain't love what we're feeling now)
I know I gotta learn
Please tell me how to ease my mind
To leave all that we did behind
(baby you're the hurting kind)
Somehow this lucky wheel should turn...

Something went wrong, tell me baby
Why do we miss what we never had?
