And I know you've been dreaming
With that look in your eye
And I know that you're leaving
You're never satisfied, oh

You're always chasing rainbows
And I can't stop you, heaven knows
I'm holding on I just can't let go

No matter what you do
My love will still be true
Forever and a day
My heart will still be strong
Enough to carry on
Forever and a day

Here it comes that old feeling
Of hurting deep inside
You want more than I'm giving
No matter how I try

And you can go your own way
You're looking out for a brighter day
I'm gonna love you and here I'll stay

No matter what you do
My love will still be true
Forever and a day
My heart will still be strong
Enough to carry on
Forever and a day

You're always wondering on
What's on your mind?
What are you searching for?

Forever and a day
Forever and a day

You're always chasing rainbows
And I can't stop you, heaven knows
I'm holding on I just can't let go

No matter what you do
My love will still be true
Forever and a day
My heart will still be strong
Enough to carry on
Forever and a day

I'll keep our love alive
Until you're by my side
Forever and a day
The love you try to find
Was right here all the time
Forever and a day

No matter what you do
My love will still be true
Forever and a day
My heart will still be strong
Enough to carry on
Forever and a day

Forever and a day
