Over your head
Tryin not to drown
Reachin for a breathe
Before it drags you down
Caught in between
All the pain you feel
You lost control
Your lettin go
But I never will

I'm holding on for you
Fighting for your life
And when your blinded by
This jaded world I will be
Your eyes even if you fall
I won't let you break
When all the noise is telling
You to run away run to me

Day after day after all you seen
Its alright if you feel
Like unravaling I'll be right
Here pushin out the walls
To find a place that you can
Stay and pave through it all

I'm holding on for you
Fighting for your life
And when your blinded by
This jaded world I will be
Your eyes even if you fall
I won't let you break
When all the noise is telling
You to run away run to me

When I was lost
Hanging on by a thread
I knew that I could run to you
Find myself again

I'm holding on for you

Fighting for your life
And when your blinded by
This jaded world I will be
Your eyes even if you fall
I won't let you break
When all the noise is telling
You to run away run to me
