Feeling something very pleasing
Slowly takes control of me
I lay back yeah it's so easy
All I know is all I feel
I may not have a lot to give
But what I have I give to you
Whatever, whenever
It takes a lot to ask of someone
It takes a lot to ask of me
I'm the fool who saw you laughing
You made sure you let me see
I may not have a lot to say
But hell I'll say it anyway
Whatever baby
Whatever
Everybody needs another
Everybody needs a high
I am one who needs a lover
You are two you can't deny
I may not have a lot to do
What would I like to do with you
Whatever baby
Whenever
Whatever
Whenever baby
Ask yourself a simple question
What's it gonna be?
Put yourself in my position
Is it him or me?
I may not have a lot to give
But what I have I'll give to you
Whatever baby
Whenever
Whatever baby
(Whatever-whenever baby)
Whenever
