A little better than the last time, baby
That's the last time, baby, I'm sure

I kinda thought you'd be my old lady
But now I never wanna get old

Get older and fall down, lose my mind
I wonder about you all the time
They say, life passed me by

I'll probably never forget that sweater
That you wear when it starts to get cold

I used to think that I'd be better
But you're never better when you get old

Get older and fall down, lose my mind
I wonder about you all the time
They say, life passed me by

Say you'll stay with me
I'm down, I'm drowning, please (yeah)
Get older and fall down, lose my mind
I wonder about you all the time
They say, life passed me by

Oh my my, how time will fly

Would you be there? Would you call me crazy?
I'm so scared of being out of control

I could speak a little French to you, baby
"Je t'aime de tout mon coeur" (I love you with all my heart)

Get older and fall down, lose my mind
I wonder about you all the time
They say, life passed me by

Say you'll stay with me
I'm down, I'm drowning, please (yeah)

Get older and fall down, lose my mind
I wonder about you all the time
And they say, life passed me by

And they say, life passed me by
Life passed me by!

Say you'll stay with me
I'm down, I'm drowning, please (yeah)
Get older and fall down, lose my mind
I wonder about you all the time
They say, life passed me by
They say, life passed me by, Life passed me by...
