Feat. Lil Kim

That other chicks is knock out where you get that fake , She's a imitation, Little Kim's that real shit She's faker than a Louie bag, fresh up from canal street
I am one of a kind you will never find another me

It's funny to me how you're jumping all over the rebound Break up to get lock down, the second I got gone, I guess
The minute you holler, you're spending your counterfeit dollars
I guess the cheaper, but chipper to keep her, whatever

Maybe she'll treat you well, and tell you everything you need to feed your ego, oh that ego
Conveniently you found, someone who looks like me, I take it that you miss me
She was just a knock off, yeah just a knock off
He want a girl that can rock her hair just like me
But does she got it? No, well is she hotter?
No, she ain't the real thing, she ain't the real thing, no
oh oh

Knock off, yeah she's just a knock off
He want a girl that can rock her style just like mine
But does she got it? No, well is she hotter?
No, she ain't the real thing, she ain't the real thing, no
oh oh

Your fraudulent behavior, of in tags and gazy labors
...so fresh on the table, is she able?
You're taking the risk now, but think that it's better at discount
You better be careful, you get what you paid for You paid more, maybe she'll love you good and hold you tight at night while you're thinking about me Ironically you found someone who looks like me I take it that you miss me

She was just a knock off, yeah just a knock off
He want a girl that can rock her hair just like me
But does she got it? No, well is she hotter?
No, she ain't the real thing, she ain't the real thing, no
oh oh

Knock off, yeah she's just a knock off
He want a girl that can rock her style just like mine
But does she got it? No, well is she hotter?
No, she ain't the real thing, she ain't the real thing, no
oh oh

I was your real life, playboy bunny, every man's fantasy Now you got a blow up doll on your arm that looks like me
Missing me so much you went and got yourself a clone
Used to have a diamond, now you got a rhinestone
She ain't in my class, she ain't in my time zone
I'm out of this world, e.t. phone home
It's funny to me now, I'm who they wanting to be now Welcome to copying Kim, everyone follow my lead now

She was just a knock off, yeah just a knock off
He want a girl that can rock her hair just like me
But does she got it? No, well is she hotter?
No, she ain't the real thing, she ain't the real thing, no
oh oh

Knock off, yeah she's just a knock off
He want a girl that can rock her style just like mine
But does she got it? No, well is she hotter?
No, she ain't the real thing, she ain't the real thing, no
oh oh.
