You are a clear glass jar
A firefly inside
You might shine against the glass
But you will never fly
Baby, do you turn it on to keep the gloom at bay?
Baby, don't you worry at all
Baby, does your glow get lost in the glare of day?
Baby, don't you worry at all
Firefly, firefly, firefly
How long have you sat inside your head
Worrying?
Come outside, you don't need to solve

Anything
Baby, is the sun too hot for your heavy head?
Baby, don't you worry at all
Baby, don't go back inside, come sit by me instead
Baby, don't you worry at all.
You are a clear glass jar
A firefly inside
Firefly, firefly, firefly
