Poor lost day, poor lost day
All your lovely moments are slipping away
I wish I could help, but I am lost myself
And I was hoping you would lead the way
Lost day, lost day Some cruel joke, some cruel joke
You are not the same day I greeted when I woke
Light when you were born, now heavy, now forlorn
I guess I wasn't listening when you spoke
Lost day, lost day
Lost day, lost day
You remind me of a love

I thought I knew
Poor lost day, poor lost day
All your lovely moments are slipping away
I wish I could help, but I am lost myself
And I was hoping you would lead the way
Lost day, lost day
Lost day, lost day
Lost day, lost day
