Don't you want to try me on?
And see what I'm made of?
You may be thinking I'm all wrong
But I might suit you perfectly
You'll never know, my love
Till you try me, try me.
I'll never fade, I'll never run
My colors, they are true
It's just the cloth that I'm cut from
Hold me right up to your skin
Don't I feel good to you?
Slip in, my love, slip in.
Is it cold in your apartment?
Can't you find a little peace?
Do you wonder where the day went?

Let it go, oh, let it go
And wrap yourself in me.
Let it go, oh, let it go
And wrap yourself in me
Don't you want to try me on?
And let me try you, too?
Nothing's lost if we are wrong
If everything unravels we Could just try someone new
Won't you
I might suit you perfectly
You'll never know, till you try me
Till you try me, you try
me, you try me
