It's Two Forty Eight
And I'm so tired
But the sleep can wait
I'm too inspired

Like horses I run
Trapped in a cage
Is this all a bluff
Or to fold away

But I'm afraid, afraid of this wall
Yeah I'm afraid of losing it all
I'm afraid, what if I fall
Where would you be?

Lay here awake
The party's done
It's too hard to fake
Where I'm coming from

A fool all alone
And he looks away
He's wandering home
Far from escape

But I'm afraid
Afraid of this wall
Yeah I'm afraid of losing it all
I'm afraid, what if I fall
Where would you be?
Where would you be?

But I'm afraid
Afraid of this wall
Yeah I'm afraid of losing it all
I'm afraid, what if I fall
Where would you be?
Where would you be?
