(Chorus)â€”

This the shit they gonna play,
on every station every dayâ€”
These the words you can't escape,
girl I wrote this song for youâ€”
When you're drivin in your car
pretending you don't know the words by heartâ€”
Girl I'll be your superstar, told you from the start I was gonna write a song for you

I'm trying to think back to that,
after that,
â€”Journey to your heart always seemin like I had the map
â€”In these trips I've had to do,
I was simply passin through â€”Was a dedication, now its chapter twoâ€”
On these pages now I see that,
when I'm with you I can't be thatâ€”
Guy that you need now, so whats this story about?â€”
It don't seem like you can figure it out
No, a lots change since we met up in Juneâ€”
This love you can't buy but you let it consumeâ€”
And I try for you but it just don't work
â€”I won't lie to you baby what's this worth?
â€”All this fightin gets us nowhereâ€”
Losin you to the crowd
â€”And there's no way we gon make this rightâ€”
So baby go and turn your radio loud
(Chorus)

An eternity of questions while answers she had none
ofâ€”
Still when I was with her toss and turn until the sun up â€”Wait for me to come up, don't let it blind you â€”I have half a mind to remind you â€”That I can't be there every time you need me â€”If you don't like that then you can leave me â€”But I won't sit here and have you tell me I'm wrong
â€”'Cause been right and I'll be writin till I'm gone
You say you lie awake waitin,â€”
Like thats the reason we're fadin,â€”

Keep blamin me it just ain't right
â€”And it's not my fault you can't sleep at night
â€”All this fightin got us nowhereâ€”Lost you to the crowdâ€”
And you will see where went wrong
â€”You just gotta turn your radio loud

(Chorus)

Now I'm livin the lifeâ€”
We was doin it wrong,
now we getting it right
â€”Its been a long time since I written this songâ€”
Used to turn this off,
now you singing along
â€”And even though we're done forâ€”
Girl I'll prolly see you at my shows in the front rowâ€” Screamin out the words like I told you you would doâ€”
And even though it hurts, you always knewâ€”
That I was gonna write a song for you

(Chorus x2)

Told you what I would do
â€”Kept my word when I said I was gonna write a song
for you
