let me inject a little knowledge in and tell the people how i got my college in i took a while yeah to get through this but i love this college shit like gaga loves judas from the minute that i showed up i kept the drinks flowin and the rest rolled up now i am sittin here wishin time would slow up cuz it seem this rugrat is finally all growed up here we go
I had only just arrived tryin to figure out how imma turn these four years into five huntin for bitties (yeah you know) i mack around never thinkin for a second that i rock a cap and gown cuz this journey is somethin i aint never planned i be killin hooks i am never leavin neverland wave goodbye, to all the ladies that i left here shit, I'm short a class? fuck it, see you next year

(Chorus)

now instead of growin up you just grow down and i never knew how much i would miss this town like never never grow never never never grow never never grow up and i don know where, cant say when but i know it wont be long till we at it again singin never never grow never never never grow up bell rings get your degrees, what that means but what the hell man i thought it was summer time seein people jumpin lines signin up for classes while im askin for another lime cuz my coronas gettin lonely and im just hangin loose no job interviews cuz i spend my afternoons skinny dippin in the fountain of youth c mon and i keep hearin are you ready for the real life audtition for the real world thatd be real nice tellin it tellin it even when im always spellin it aint no J-O-B for me they got me yellin it im sorry im not enjoyin the majority yeah stayin young is meanin more to me lose so many girls i coulda started a serority but imma go explorin cuz this college shit is borin me

(Chorus)

Look backwards hat went to class when i had to Walked in and they're like who the fuck is that dude lame ass teachers always tryin to give me hassle cuz they didnt get play in college like Matt Cassel Look at me teach im gettin the last laugh got the diploma and im takin over frat rap but really though the weekends only got better couldnt wait for friday hi rebecca athletics were dope but i wanted fun too so i was the drunk dude sittin in the lunch room drinkin coke with just a couple of shots in it tryin not to be obvious but was the opposite fuck it though i guess i never wanna leave ferris bueller i got something clever up my sleeve i said peace to duke and then became a rapper and hit up georgetown to cop a fuckin masters

(Chorus)
