

Van Velzen

"Crawl"

Visit "Crawl" on MotoLyrics.com

On a way home, down the same road,
I can feel it again, the floor beneath both of us.
Is trembling now, because the words are shaking
Telling me now, doesn't change anything
You're telling me how, I should have done something else.

But how can I be guilty over crime, you started.
Stop right there, 'cause you can do better.

I'm not gonna crawl, it's not what I want
I'm not afraid to stand, where the others turn and ran
If you have to cry, I'll make your tears mine.
You're the one I want, but I'm never gonna crawl.

Standing outside, thinking how lucky I was Hitting my stride, being there with you
But now it's like your emotion, wants to claim something
Gone so wrong, 'cause you can do better

I'm not gonna crawl, it's not what I want
I'm not afraid to stand, where the others turn and ran
If you have to cry, I'll make your tears mine.
You're the one I want, but I'm never gonna crawl.

I will make that we stay, no I'm gonna change it
You can leave me astray, from your heart
somewhere deep in your soul, there's a wait to get out of all. You hurt, and make this matter.

I'm not gonna crawl, it's not what I want
I'm not afraid to stand, where the others turn and ran
If you have to cry, I'll make your tears mine.
I'm never gonna crawl.

Visit Van Velzen page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.