When you're empty and you don't know
Why it all escapes you, escapes you
If those dreams you're holding on to shatter
And it breaks you, breaks you, whoa

When you try so hard and you just can't win,
Yeah I know that feeling
You don't wanna talk but you still want a friend,
Anytime you need me,
I'm here, here, I am here.

When you need a prayer but you can't find the words
Then I'll pray for you, for you
And if the night comes down so hard
That you're lost in the dark,
I'll find you, I come and find you, whoa.

When you try so hard and you just can't win,
Yeah I know that feeling
You don't wanna talk but you still want a friend,
Anytime you need me,
I'm here, here, I am here.

Anytime you're lonely, anytime you're crawling
Anytime you're falling down.

You try so hard but you just can't win,
I know that feeling
You don't wanna talk but you still want a friend,
Anytime you need me,
I'm here, I am here.
I'm here, here, I am here.
