People are remarkin' on the change
That's come over me
It can be explained very easily

Out of the blue
Someone's come into my only world
And now I'm walking tall
And if even I can find someone
There's hope for us all

I had a reputation as a 'Stay-at-home' so and so
?Cause when my friends would call me up
And say that's eight o'clock
I'll tell ?em no, no, no, no

I must admit there were times
When all I ever did was climb the wall
But if even I can find someone
There's hope for us all, woah, yeah
If even I can find someone
There's hope for us all

Even in my darkest hour
There was still a light somewhere
Letting me know by its glow
That I'd find comfort there

I watch a lonely street
Waiting for love to come
And if even I can find someone
There's hope for us all

I must admit there were times
When all I ever did was climb the wall
But if even I, a feckless man who's thrown away
Every single change he's ever had
Can find someone to check his fall
There must be hope for us all, woah, yeah

If even I can find someone
There's hope, hope for us all
