Story book love, made for one another
Now she treats you just like a brother
And you don't know what you've done
Or even how to make it right

People change
That's the long and short of it
Prepare yourself for it or get bit
People change

Save your tears, you're gonna need 'em
Because for certain, you're gonna be hurtin'
If you don't get hip to a simple fact of life

People change
That's the long and short of it
Prepare yourself for it or get bit
People change

People change, people change
People change, people change

Now you say those times you had Whenever never that many
Just be thankful you had any
And cut yourself a slice of reality

People change
That's the long and short of it
Prepare yourself for it or get bit
People change

People change
That's the natural thing to do
Prepare yourself for it or get bit
People change

They always have and so will you
Prepare yourself for it or get bit
People change

People change

That's the long and short of it
Prepare yourself for it or get bit
People change

Prepare yourself
