Silent Me

It was cold place of corners and cobwebs ,of heartache
and fear

And I felt it reach out to me with it's damp boney fingers pulling my hair.

Though I did hate it,I loved the people there,
And would I be here today,If I hadn't started there?

Silent me,Silent me,

No thoughts on my mind, no words from my mouth

I stopped and stared

And silently ,walked away from there.

And all the love in the world,can't save a soul that's happier drowning,

That's making it's own little tower of anger & secrets; &
ten kinds of misery.

I cannot know what I know and go drowning with you
I cannot be alive and live this death with you.

Silent me,Silent me,

No thoughts on my mind, no words from my mouth

I stopped and stared

And silently ,walked away from there.

This is a place that has no hope in heaven or dreams

And I have to go far away to dream of heavenly things.

Silent me,Silent me,etc
