"U In The Stars"

My love is broken, I know it used to work
Or maybe I was foolin' you, the boy who cried love
My love is broken, it was nice to hold
I slipped through my fingers, consider it sold

With wine shall I fix it dear love, dear love
With wine and whiskey my love

My love is stolen, I've been kidnapped
They've stolen my instinct, left my senses intact
My love is frozen, it's the new ice age
I can still smell the sunlight when I see your face

With wine shall I fix it dear love, dear love
With wine and whiskey my love

With what shall I mend it dear love
With time and truth and tears

My love is frozen, it's the new ice age
I can still smell the sunlight when I see your face
My love is burning, I can see the sparks
I hope they fly high and find you in the stars
I'll find you in the stars

I'll find you in the stars, I'll find you in the stars
I'll find you in the stars, I'll find you in the stars
