I turn away the past
It's just another reason
Realizing it all
I wont even say

Cuz believing in you
Gets harder everyday
Growin stronger knowin I'm not gonna stay

You thought
That I couldn't
Stand on my own
Never gave me any credit
To hell with you
Id rather be alone
Just because I said I loved you doesn't mean I'm sad at all

Well Ima show you now
You tried to bring me down
(When you were runnin around)
Look who's cryin now

(And so when you move on)
Don't walk you need to run
Im gonna I wash my hands
Canâ€™t love you till the end

I'm left with no more doubts
I'm done trying to figure you out
You look who's crying now
Look who's crying now
Look who's crying now

Sittin here
Thinkin about
What I want now
It all seems possible
I'm not weighed down

Feels like I need to get away
Out from under your constant hate

You thought
That I couldn't
Stand on my own
Never gave me any credit
To hell with you
I'd rather be alone
Just because I said I loved you doesn't mean I'm sad at
all

Well Ima show you now
You tried to bring me down
(When you were runnin around)
Look who's cryin now

(And so when you move on)
Don't walk want you to run
Im done I wash my hands

Look who's crying now
Look who's crying now

You and me
Were not to be
Won't be no history
Played my cards
I'm done and free

Well Ima show you now
(When you were runnin around)

(And so when you move on)
Iâ€™m done I wash my hands
Cant love you till the end

I'm left with no more doubts
