Embrace me in your arms, take away my fears.
Save us through your Fathers grace.
Keep me in your safe place.
Embrace me in your arms.
For we take our final breath.
To resist is foolish, for it was written by our hands,
As we stand and watch in faith.

Demonstrate your powers to prove to those who have strayed afar.
They' ve strayed afar,
He'll show no mercy.
He is all forgiving.
Send your legions to fight our war.
The is falling down.
Sit back and watch as the sky falls down
