Come back, come back to see you should have listened
Much more carefully, what are you wanting from me,
What do you want me to be? Come set, come set me
free
We're gonna make it there eventually what are you wanting from me?
What do you want me to be?

I will destroy you
You're so pathetic
You're a waste of my time
You took advantage of me
Now it's my turn to lead
I'm taking back what's rightfully mine

much
More carefully, what are you wanting from me,
What do you want me to be? Come set, come set me
free
We're gonna make it there eventually what are you
wanting from me?
What do you want me to be?

You will respect me
It's not a question
It's me you'll want this time
With all the heads that I turn
When will you ever learn
That it's me who controls my life

Come back, come back to see you should have listened
Much more carefully, what are you wanting from me,
What do you want me to be? Come set, come set me
free
We're gonna make it there eventually what are you
wanting from me?
What do you want me to be?

You're in the way of what I'm gonna take You're just a fake and you'll never forget me
