and everytime i step outside;
and everytime i comb my hair;
i always seem to find you there right when i need you there you are

and everytime i get in my car and everytime i close my eyes no matter where i go your never to far away

and everytime i take my bath
and even when i lay in my bed you always get inside my head you are

walls are coming down this time maybe we should stay right here i aint never had no fear now things are out of hand and you seem to be the same old same baby its a war out there I hope that you will remain unchanged lets sit here for a while because we are just fine

maybe we should spend a little time
i got plenty time
it feels so nice
dont ever change
lets stay this way for the rest of our days cause you are

music, echo, i cnt let go inhale real slow
here we are again
precious, im so happy i cnt say no
inhale real slow

i never wanna leave this place we're in its funny how we are so in sync again just to know that you're here to the very end makes the music flow much sweeter now say that you'll remain unchanged baby it's war out there time seems to be a bit too strange let's sit here for a while because

music, echo, i can't let go
inhale real slow
precious, i'm so happy i can't say no

you are just like music to me feels so hard to believe that you're here, i'm here again this is how i always wanted to be can't believe that you're here i'm here again

you're never too far away
you are

it feels so good to me and everytime i get in my ride and wanna take a walk no matter what i do with my life you are (you are)
