Every day is another day to pick up the pieces and
meet my obligations.
I need this, want that, gotta take care of that, and on and on.
But nothing else can take the place of you.

You are my desire Lord above all things.
Come and refresh my spirit. I realize that...

Everyday your grace and mercy follows me.
Every day I feel your presence Lord.
In spite of what may come I know you'll always be here with me.
Every day I need your guidance.
Everyday growing more like you.
Forevermore Lord I want nothing, nothing, nothing else
but you.

I gotta learn to prioritize and see my reality through your word
Cause that's living in the newness of life effectually.
There is no true existence apart from you.

I don't need anyone to fulfill me.
I don't need anyone to complete me.
I have found my souls desire, revitalizer.
I'm emphasizing that I don't want anyone or anything
but you.
