*I'm gonna throw my hands up.
Ain't looking down today.
Leave all my problems behind,
It's gonna be okay.
My God is for me,
Who can stop me now?
Can't nobody shut it down, no!
This party's going on!

Ain't nobody mad but the enemy.
Since I got Christ in my life they got dat envy.
Some days I'm high then I'm low
But this one thing I know
I'm never alone. No.

Never, no never, ever will he ever forsake me
He's always there. He cares. My burdens he'll bear for me.
I won't give up, I'm gonna trust him. His word is still true.

When push comes to shove, I'm looking up.

I'm walking tall, I got authority
To speak what I don't see and watch it come to be.
See I believe I can do all things
Through Christ who strengthens me.

Everybody if you with me, walking in victory
Put your hands up in the air.
And say oh ah oh woa oh ah oh!
If you wanna go higher, ignite the fire!
Put your hands up in the air.
And say oh ah oh woa oh ah oh!
