Every year I feel the same
I hate the man and lose the game
Now I find myself on top
Nowhere to start, don't wanna stop

I love these lovely nights out on the club
Working late, it never stops
I'll be your electric shock
And with a song I'll have your heart unlocked

If I'm on the radio, radio, would you still love me so?
Or would you turn me off your stereo, stereo?
Will you be at the show screaming one last song
tonight?

Wake up kid, let's look for gold
This year's the year that I've been sold
I signed my name and sold my soul
I took the risk, don't wanna know

If I'm on the radio, radio would you still love me so?
Or would you turn me off your stereo, stereo?
Will you be at the show screaming one last song
tonight?

Radio, radio, would you still love me so?
Or would you turn me off your stereo, stereo?
Will you be at the show screaming one last song
tonight?
One last song tonight

I wish I could live like this forever
And sing my days and days away

There's always the choice beside me of leaving this underground
And if I pack up my bags around me
Will you be filled with hate or struck with love?
Love, love, love, love

Radio, radio, would you still love me so?
Or would you turn me off your stereo, stereo?

Will you be at the show screaming one last song
tonight?

Radio, radio, one last song tonight

Radio, radio, radio, radio, one last song tonight

Every year I feel the same

I hate the man and lose the game

Now I find myself on top

Nowhere to start, don't wanna stop
