It's been time and time again
When you said that you'd be leaving, soon
Hello Mister Wise
Nice of you to pop your head in now
Well, it's too late

I've been thinking all about the ways that we could live together babe
It's time to move on

Close to New Year's day
In such a subtle way...a baby
Son, you showed your face
And I couldn't help but cry
I hope that you will understand
It's time for you to find a few more friends
It's OK

CHORUS:

It's been 29 days and I'm OK
I've got no place to call my home
Just a little old house on a prarie road
Waiting for you to call me
I've got my heart in a city where I don't belong
A wife and 2 kids who wanna buy a dog
A few spare bucks and a rusty lawn
I couldn't have asked for more...in 29 days

It's time to say goodbye
I've felt a little high...lately
And over these 2 years
I could've sworn that you and I could make it maybe
In every man's life there comes a time to say hello and see you around Another town
