

Nico "Chasin' The Wind"

Visit "Chasin' The Wind" on MotoLyrics.com

Take a walk down rich street
Lookin' for happiness
Meet up with empty
End up with emptiness
(I never thought it'd be like this before)

CHORUS:

Are ya chasin' the wind and-a-hoping to find
A lucky strike in this old life
Or are ya looking to find a way to find yourself to find some peace of mind
I think I found some answers; as a matter of fact
I think I found the only one
I gotta be close to you

Take a walk down poor street
Lookin' for spare change
Running from addiction
Looking for religion
(To satisfy the hunger in my soul)

BRIDGE:

Closer to you - I believe it's true
I believe in You
I've seen angels dancing on my bed
