You always wanted to have everything
Everything under the sun
You always wanna be the superstar
Be in love with everyone
Well I got news for you; it's time for you to lose
You precious addiction attitude
Cuz I can't be the man in your perfect plan
On your emotional altitude

CHORUS:

And I say, what's your line, cuz I don't know mine
All I am is tryin' to find....out the reasons why you're so complicated.... and I hate it
It's just one of those things that makes you wanna go do do do do, dadadada

Tell me why are you so coooold

What can I believe...about you?
Everybody's saying everything...blah blah blah
All I know is what I've seen
In that person inside of you You're as guilty as a suicide;
colder than you feel inside
