I always ask myself
How could this darker cloud make me stronger now?
I'll always ask myself, oh will this go away?

When will this change?
Oh, I don't wanna, wanna wait.
All of this pain,
Oh! Will it, will it go away!
I ask myself this everyday!

I just wanna leave this place behind!
Every time I see your face in mine!
I just wanna leave this place behind!
Every time I see your face in mine!

A sink and drink myself,
To sleep I could just think I'm a lot stronger now.
I gotta catch myself
To kick the silver, make it go away
When will this change?
Oh! I don't wanna, wanna wait.
All of this pain!
Oh! will it, will it go away?
I broke apart to play the game

I just wanna leave this place behind!
Every time I see your face in mine!
I just wanna leave this place behind!
Every time I see your face in mine!

So what's your inner thought?
You left me high, you left me dry!
So what's your life look like? Dressed up in spited
you're all you got.
Melodies in my head,
Keeping me alive from my death.
I keep singing ladadadada
I keep singing just to keep myself alive!
Alive, just to keep myself alive.

I just wanna leave this place behind!

Every time I see your face in mine!
I just wanna leave this place behind!
Every time I see your face in mine! (x2)

So what's your inner thought?
You left me high, you left me dry!
So what your life looks like?
Just don't fix mine, you're all you got
You're all you got!
You're all you've got!
