(verse1)

what the hell is that black shit on your teeth?
what the fuck have you been eating?
it must come from the lusty lies that you try to hide yourself behind!
its as plain as the craters on your face.
the way this changes everything.

i can tell your lying with the words your saying...Nick im sorry!!

(chorus)

Can you say liar?
(its killing me)
Can you say liar?
(and i believe)

this looks like murder.
you bring out i livid side of me i guess...
Can you say liar?
(its killing me)
Can you say liar?
(and i believe)
this looks like murder.
you have slit the throats of family again...

(verse2)

Its a shame you cant make out that voice,
the voice of hope.
i could be wrong but he's not worth it but in his mind we are worthless.
dont get me started..
it breaks my heart and..
i can tell that you are lying with the way your saying....Nick im sorry!!
