You twinkle and a'sparkle like a new barbed wire you crackle and pop like a wet funeral pyre and when the storm comes you whirl like garbage and leaves

(2,3,4)

in the street!

oh I'd like to meet you
but maybe not today
yeah, I'd like to meet you
but then run away
and oh I'd like to meet you
cuz the things we'd say Hey hey...
Hey!
um... Hi!

look at this apple with one bite bit and look at this banana vertically split and look at this tangerine yeah with very loose skin:
It all comes off in one piece

peace peace
peace for mankind
cheese cheese
cheese for mousekind
and these these
these are mine, but you can have some

it all comes off in one piece!
