Earth without space
Clock without face
Ocean with no water
Sun with no light
That's me without You

Let me take a moment
To smell the roses of my life
All the things I treasure
You supply

The love of a mother
And a heartfelt press of a child
Laughter with my good friends
My baby's smile

Every sunrise
When my skies are blue
Breath of Heaven
I feel You

With each heartbeat
My soul is renewed
Can't live my life
Without You

I hope it never happens
But on any given day
My whole world could shatter
And fade away

But after all the heartache
And tears that I cry
You'd be there to comfort me
Till again I'd realize

Every sunrise
When my skies are blue
Breath of Heaven
I feel You

With each heartbeat

My soul is renewed
Can't live my life
Without You

It only took one moment
And I surrendered to Your grace
And I'm Yours forever
And right here, here is where I'm gonna stay

Whenever I think of You
You take my breath away
Please believe me
And receive me, High Alpha, my life

Every sunrise
When my skies are blue
Breath of Heaven
I feel You

With each heartbeat
My soul is renewed
Can't live my life
Without You

Every sunrise
When my skies are blue
Breath of heaven
I feel You

Every heartbeat
My soul is renewed
Can't live my life
Without You

I can't be, I can't be, without You
I'm totally dependent on You, God
But without You I can't do anything
(Without You)
Without You
