Certain people can't be trusted.
Certain lies must be told.
Certain events must go unnoticed,
others must be well exposed.

Some trouble can be justified.
Some rows may be dignified.
Conquest can lead to nothing.
Battling only creates a losing side.

Ah, Ooh. Ah, Ooh.
Who are we to care.

Certain days and nights are wasted.
Certain days are utilised.
Some nights evoke our havoc.
Some nights lead ethereal glow.

Thumping hearts can be a warning.
Thumping hearts can be a life sign.
Conscience can lead to memories.
Conscience can turn our mind.

Ah, Ooh. Ah, Ooh.
Who are we to care.
Ah, Ooh. Ah, Ooh.
Who are we to care.

Certain people can't be trusted.
Certain lies must be told.
Certain events must go unnoticed,
others must be well exposed.

Some trouble can be justified.
Some rows may be dignified.
Conquest can lead to nothing.
Battling only creates a losing side.

Ah, Ooh. Ah, Ooh.
Who are we to care.□
