"My Goodbye"

All your life
You've run away
Further from love, further from us
How you burn
There's on thing I've been meaning to say
If you love something you've got to learn how to give it
away
So this is My Good Bye.
This is My Good Bye.

All your life
You've run away
Further from love, further from us
How it burns
The light you've drawn and the walls you stepped on so high
Further from us, further from love
How you burn
There's on thing I've been meaning to say
If you love something you've got to learn how to give it
So this is My Good Bye.
This is My Good Bye.

This is My Good Bye...
