Bitch made me go to church but our revolution's,
revolution's so hard that it hurts.
Stealing camels from her purse 'cause our revolution's,
revolution's so hard that it hurts.
When I said that I was at home, I wasn't really at home.

Once I was told, by someone I didn't know, 'bout this place I couldn't go, Oh no.

When your heart beats too hard, have a bit of him in
there with you, to make it through the Wintertime;
Autumn in long coats.

Ready?
(Gibberish)

When your heart beats too hard, too hard, too hard, too hard, too hard, too hard.

Rich men they go to work when I was 17 what an employee I turned out to be. Got fired for stealing from the register. My boss was a bastard, but he was nice to me. My master said I could be a Senator, I'd rather be a Janitor instead.

Once I was told by someone I didn't know, bout this place I couldn't go. Oh no!

When your heart beats too hard, have a bit of him in
there with you, to make it through the Wintertime;
Autumn in long coats.

(Gibberish)
When your heart beats too hard, too hard, too hard, too hard, too hard, too hard, too hard, too hard, too hard,
too hard, too hard, too hard, too hard, too hard, too hard.
